The Association is made up of the 63 largest police departments in the United States and seven largest departments in Canada. MCC is non-partisan, serving members, their departments and the citizens of both nations and all political parties. MCC strives to provide effective solutions to modern day urban problems, as well as prevent, protect against, and respond to crime and hostile acts against the U.S. and Canada.

Media advisory: Please call APD PIO if you plan to attend. Please note that all members of the media will be required to depart the meeting room upon the conclusion of the welcoming remarks.
